

Hon. Henry Dickinson, of Columbus, Miss., a distinguished old-line Whig, and former chancellor of the northern district of Mississippi has declared for Breckinridge and Lane, and is taking an active part in their behalf.

Value the friendship of him who stands by you in the storm; swarms of insects will surround you in the sunshine.

"We hold these truths to be self-evident—that all men are created equal; that they are endowed by their Creator with certain inalienable rights; that among these are life, LIBERTY, and the pursuit of happiness. That to secure these rights, governments are instituted among men, deriving their just power from the consent of the governed."

"I have quoted so much at this time merely to show that according to our ancient faith, the law nothing comparatively to exchange.—There is nothing whatever which the South now receives from the North which it cannot get cheaper elsewhere. The North gains nowhere else get what it now gets from the South. In these two sentences there are volumes of suggestions.

MISSISSIPPI ELECTION.—The election in Mississippi last week was only for local officers, but according to the Jackson Mississippian, the returns indicate a Breckinridge majority of about 20,000.

The Know Nothing Stander on Mr. Hainston.

We omitted last week, for want of space, to notice the Washington's explanation of the falsehood started by the Know Nothings of Salisbury on the eve of the late election, to injure the prospects of Mr. Fisher.

It will be remembered that a report was sent up to Mocksville from this place to the effect that Mr. Hainston had given $100 with a credit for $1000 more, to effect Mr. Fisher's election, and it will also be remembered that Mr. Hainston, at a public meeting in Salisbury, a few weeks ago, denounced this "wholly false and its originators and circulators as slanders and liars."

After a week or two's silence, the Washington copies our notice of this matter from the Charlotte Democrat, and explains the matter in this wise:

"We have hitherto said nothing about it, [the Hainston story] although it has occasioned no little noise. Mr. Hainston, as we have noticed, is a little speech at Mocksville, and we learned that Mr. Fisher also alluded to it in his recent speech in the same town. A comparative very innocent young man has been bitterly abused about it in private. And after all, reader, what do you suppose are the facts of its origin? It was started by a democrat, a gentleman in close intimacy with the leading men of the party. Now, it is true, that Mr. Hainston would give the money to effect Fisher's election; but would give it for party purposes, in the August election. Two towns, who were heard him make the declaration in a boasting way, told it on the street—they told him at the time they would use it in the election, and that it would be as good as a hundred votes. He did not forbid it, neither did he qualify it or change the statement. They paraded, and our Whig friends honestly believing the story—which, taken in connection with the high political excitement of the time, and the family pride and political interest it was supposed Mr. Hainston felt in the contest between Ramsey and Fisher, is not strange—that it freely on the street, as they said they would do and once out, it needed no pushing."

The Triller are the Washington's. Now let the reader mark the bungling attempt of the Washington to excuse and justify a falsehood. The "Hainston story," it will be remembered, was that "he, Hainston, had sent a check of $100 to Salisbury for the purpose of effecting Mr. Fisher's election, and had given a credit for $1000 more. The Washington says the Hainston story "was stated by a democrat." This is not true; and above the Washington admits as false what it in the same breath states as a fact. What the democrat "stated" is this, and we have it from himself: "Two young Whites" were boasting to him of the amount of money their party had and could raise for electioneering purposes. The democrat replied to the boast, "we have $100 and if we want $1000 more we can get it from Mr. Hainston." This was said in the boasting spirit of the "young whigs," and wholly in joke. Nothing was said about using this declaration in the election and therefore it was not forbidden, nor qualified, nor changed—the whole thing being said in a joking, bantering spirit. But "they paraded, and our young whig friends believing the story" that the democracy had "$100 and if we want $1000 more we can get it from Mr. Hainston," it is not strange, thinks the Washington, that they should go and tell what they had not heard, viz: that Hainston had sent a check of $100 to Salisbury to effect Mr. Fisher's election, and had given credit for $1000 more. This may not have been thought "strange" considering that it certainly was very false, and therein lies the gist of the matter—Any lie or slander started on democrats "needs no pushing," truly. We have nothing to say as to the "comparatively very innocent young man" the Washington speaks of. What amount of guilt may be comprised in this new degree of comparison we can't tell. The public may take the case.

The Position of South Carolina.

Speaking of the result of the late election in South Carolina, the Charlotte Mercury has the following:

The question of the separate secession of South Carolina in the event of Lincoln's election, and other States in the South failing to lead, being premature, and not a subject for action before the Legislature, has not been made an issue in the canvass. We believe that the delegation attached to a man will vote to save the State and to call a State Convention and place South Carolina by the side of Alabama. Our readers will remember that the Governor of Alabama is instructed to issue writs of election and summon a Convention of the people of that State within forty days after it is ascertained that a Black Republican is elected to the Presidency.

Since the foregoing was written the Governor has issued a proclamation for an extra session of the Legislature for the purpose of electing Presidential Electors (the vote of the State being given by the Legislature) and to adopt measures for the safety of the State if thought necessary.

It is said the Prince of Wales intends re-visiting the U. S. at no distant day, during the winter season, to make a trip through the Southern States. If he fails to visit the mountains of N. C. during that trip, he will miss the grandest sight.

Frost.—During the past week we had in this neighborhood one or two killing frosts. At Augusta, Ga., they had a heavy white frost on the morning of the 15th inst.

Snow at the North.

We learn from our exchanges that snow fell to the depth of two to three inches in portions of N. Y. and Pa. on the 6th inst.

Let us Have an Answer.

Before we reply to the insolent and disingenuous statements of the Wilmington Herald, Fayetteville Observer, &c., on our article on the "Know Nothing Church in Salisbury," we desire answers to the following:

Are you for utter, unqualified, unmitigated submission to Black Republican rule?

Do you think the negro question under any circumstances a cause for dissolution?

Would you accept the humblest office under Lincoln?

Do you think it folly to talk of dissolving the Union to protect the negro?

Do you think, because negroes are stolen and run of and sold down South, that, therefore, the Southern people have no right to complain of Northern negro thieves?

Do you think that any man who could stand the administration of President Buchanan, can stand that of Lincoln?

Do you think the administration of Franklin Pierce the worst we ever did or could have—not excepting that of Lincoln?

Have you any particular preference for the blood of "Southern traitors" over that of Northern traitors?

Will you go for giving up the institution of slavery rather than the Union?

Is it your purpose to prepare the State for the election of Lincoln by running Bell?

Do you believe that because the Southern States have uncivilized land within their borders, that therefore they should relinquish all right to an equality in the territories?

Do you believe in hanging Southern nullifiers and not complaining of Northern nullifiers?

Do you believe the democracy of North Carolina to be disunionists?

Do you think it a dignified occupation for men to parade the streets with wagons with bells attached for party effect?

Do you think the following mottoes or transcriptions—or what do they mean?—"All on deck!"—"O. K."—"Six Kom Rause!"—"Wide Awake," &c., &c.

We pause for a reply.

The State Fair.

We learn from the Standard that on Tuesday, the first day, the attendance at the State fair was small, but that it increased on Wednesday, and that on Thursday the number present could not have been less than eight thousand. The weather up to Friday morning was fine—on Friday it was wet and cold. The exhibition is spoken of as superior in kind and quality, though as a general thing in number and quantity the articles showed no very decided increase. The number of blooded horses was larger and better than formerly. Upon the whole the fair was a decided success.

On Thursday, instead of a set speech, impromptu speeches were made by Hon. Kenneth Rayner, Hon. Bedford Brown, Kemp P. Battle, Esq., and Hon. D. M. Barringer. The meetings of the Society were held as usual, Dr. W. R. Holt, President, in the chair. Dr. Davidson, President, Dr. E. Crutcher, of Franklin, S. F. Patterson, of Caldwell, R. B. Bridges, of Edgecomb, and W. B. Wadsworth, of Craven—Vice Presidents. J. P. Hutchins was re-elected Treasurer, and P. F. Pescu, Secretary.

Amongst the delegates appointed to the several pairs to be held, the following were appointed to attend at Charlotte: Maj. S. W. Cole, D. M. Barringer, H. C. Hays, S. H. Rogers. On Thursday night, the Society resolved, on motion of Judge Ruffin, that in its opinion, the services of Prof. Emmons, as State Geologist, have been eminently useful to the State, and the earnest wish was expressed that he might be continued in that office.

A committee consisting of Judge Ruffin, B. F. Moore, K. Rayner, Chas. Mauld and D. M. Barringer was appointed to apply to the next Legislature for a new and better act of incorporation than that under which the Society is now operating.

On motion of W. R. Cox, Esq., the North-Carolina Planter was unanimously recommended to the patronage of the farmers of the State.

The list of premiums awarded at the fair has not yet been published.

State Educational Association. Our readers will bear in mind that this Association will hold its next annual meeting in Wilmington, beginning at 7 p. m., on Tuesday the 13th of November. A committee of reception has been appointed by the citizens of Wilmington to see to the comfort of the delegates. This committee has requested us to forward to them immediately the names of such delegates as we know will attend, in order that provision shall be made for their accommodation. Those persons, therefore, who contemplate going will please leave their names with us to be forwarded. Delegates will be passed over the various railroads at half fare, and we know from experience that they will be hospitably entertained in Wilmington.

Non-Tariff.—The Greensborough Patriot says that Messrs. Avery, Clingman, Weldon N. Edwards and others in this State, declare openly and publicly that the election of Lincoln would be good cause for a dissolution of the Union. This is not correct. We have heard Messrs. Clingman and Avery in public speeches and have had a conversation with Mr. Edwards, and know that they have made no such declaration. There is such a thing as a State seceding, but the South seceding is a thing which I cannot comprehend. I do not know how the South could secede. I do not think it could ever happen, and therefore I have got no answer to give as to what the South should do.

This looks like disunion. In his speech recently made in the city of New York, Hon. Wm. L. Yancey spoke as follows:

I am no candidate for any office, and I do not want your vote. But I would like to advise with you, and get you to vote for a good man, for any man, I do not care who it is, excepting one of the irrepressible conflict men. In the first place there is no such thing as the South seceding. I do not know how a State could secede. Let Southern Men Read This!

The Buffalo (N. Y.) Commercial, a Black Republican print, closes an article as follows. Let those Southern men who clamorously proclaim that they will take office under Lincoln reflect upon their course, seeing as they must that they encourage the enemies of the South and furnish them with arguments on which to appeal to the conservative men of the North who are unwilling to endanger the Union by electing a purely sectional President. Mark, read and awarify digest:

"But Lincoln you fear is sectional—supported by a geographical party. Will it be geographical when he is elected? Must he not have a party at the South, and is not every man to be found in the Union organization?"

In a month after his election, when Southern conservatives are in his cabinet, when Southern Whig statesmen in House and Senate support his policy, when Southern men are raised to high offices, the Bell and Everett Electors will note this) and are scattered all over the slave States to defend and support the grand old Union of which he is the representative man, where will be your geographical party then? Cannot you act with some faith in the future, some foresight, some perception of the inevitable course of events? The cry of disunion has already ceased at the South, and the people of that region are avowedly reconciling themselves to Lincoln's election.—Buffalo (N. Y.) Commercial.

Newspaper Changes. Jno. W. Syme, Esq., has associated with him Everett Hall, Esq., as proprietor and Editor of the Raleigh Register.

The Daily issues of the Fayetteville Carolinian and the Courier have been discontinued—weekly editions only now being printed.

Mr. Chapin, late of the Goldboro' Independent, has started a new N. C. paper in Washington, Beaufort county.

Wm. B. Smith, Esq., of the Tarboro' Mercury, has issued a neat and excellent monthly agricultural journal, entitled the "Edgecomb Farm-Journal," two numbers of which we have received. Price fifty cents per year. No farther should be without it.

Newborn. Miss A. C. Johnson, an American Lady, has written a new book entitled "The Cottages of the Alps, or Life and Manners in Switzerland," which will be issued in the following extract in reference to the old town of Newborn.

How many of our readers know that the town of Newborn, in North Carolina, was settled by a colony from this old city of bears, two hundred having emigrated thither in 1710, under Christopher Gadsden's leadership, but whether they transplanted a newgerie we do not know.

SHOOTING AFFAIR.—We learn from the High Point Reporter that Dr. Jones was shot by a man named Inscore, near Mocksville, Davie county last Tuesday. The cause was, Inscore rented a farm from Dr. Jones and was desired to leave it. The shot took effect in the left side of the abdomen. Dr. Jones seems likely to recover. Inscore is in jail.

Since the foregoing was written we learn from the Winston Sentinel that Dr. Jones is dead.

FIRE IN SALISBURY.—The foundry attached to the workshops of Messrs. Frerick & Raeder, of this place was completely destroyed by fire on Wednesday evening last. The favorable condition of the wind and the exertions of our citizens and fire brigade prevented the fire from spreading to the machine shops and saved these enterprising and energetic young men from ruin. The loss sustained amounts to some $2,000. No insurance.

Breckinridge Tickets. We caution our democratic brethren against spurious election tickets. Let every voter see that the names on the ticket at the head of our editorial columns are on the ticket he votes. Discard any ticket not having those ten names on. Look out for imposture.

Amalgamation.—Our friend and contemporary of the Charlotte Bulletin has taken upon himself a wife. He is clearly in favor of Union. We wish him and his bride every conceivable happiness, and we ask his pardon for not sending our congratulations sooner.

Messrs. Fox and Myers at Salisbury. J. A. Fox, Esq., elector for this district on the Breckinridge ticket, met W. R. Myers, Esq., the Douglas elector, at this place on Saturday. We have no room for a notice of the discussion to-day—except to say that Mr. Fox was powerful in his defense of the National Democratic ticket, while Mr. Myers made poorly out of the poor business he has in hand. During the discussion it transpired that Mr. Myers does not believe in his leader's (Douglas') doctrine that the people of a territory can exclude slavery before they come to form a State Constitution, and also that Mr. Myers believes the Supreme Court has settled the territorial question, whilst his leader (Douglas) denies it. Mr. Fox asked Mr. Myers if every vote given for Douglas would not help Mr. Bell? Mr. Myers replied, "Well, if it does." We will notice this discussion in our next.

The Bell elector was missing. Where was he?

It is not true, as insinuated by the Wilmington Herald, that the weather prevented the people from attending the late K. N. mass meeting here. The weather was fine up to the arrival of the trains on the first day. It did rain during the first day's meeting, when there were not 1000 people present. On the second day it did not rain so as to interfere with the meeting or the dinner or anything else. The weather was as good as could have been expected. We repeat that at no time did the number at the meeting exceed 2,500, nor did more than 700 people visit this place on that occasion from beyond the limits of Rowan.

Large Apple. Maj. J. C. Turner presented us with an apple, on Saturday last, measuring 14 1/2 inches in circumference and weighing 18 ounces. It was one of what is called the Bull species and was given to Maj. Turner by the lady of Hon. W. H. Thomas, of Jackson county. We learn that such apples are by no means uncommon in the West.

MECKLENBURG AGRICULTURAL FAIR.—This fair opens at Charlotte on Wednesday, Oct. 31st, and will last three days. P. J. Lowrie, Esq., Treasurer, will except our thanks for a complimentary ticket.

Breckinridge Tickets may be had gratuitously at this office.

The Question Settled.

The annex, from the Charlotte Courier of the 16th inst., says the Charlotte Bulletin, conveys the information that it has proof positive that the nomination for Vice President on the ticket with Mr. DOUGLAS, was tendered to the Hon. Wm. L. YANCEY, and that Mr. DOUGLAS was cognizant of, and doubtless approved, the proposed arrangement. We have always been satisfied that the statement of the Courier was correct, for it never indulges in bold assertion:

WILLIAM L. YANCEY AND THE NOMINATION.—We are authorized to state positively and distinctly, and on responsible evidence which can be furnished to a proper demand, that the nomination for the Vice Presidency on the Douglas ticket, was offered to William L. Yancey, of Alabama.

This offer was made through or by Geo. N. Sanders, of New York, and with the knowledge of Stephen Arnold Douglas, and but a few days before the meeting of the adjourned Convention at Baltimore.

We respectfully request exchanges interested to give extensive circulation to this assertion, in the words of, and on the authority of the Courier, as we have placed it above, and we demand in justice, that those who undertake to doubt should put their negation in a proper form.

This will be taken as an answer to all who have questioned us concerning our former assertion of the same fact, as we had not then the distinct evidence available, although we were fully convinced before we first uttered the assertion.

DAVIS COUNTY FAIR.—We return our thanks to Messrs. G. W. Johnson, N. T. Brock, W. H. Berry, L. Ward, and Max Catbrell, Esq., Committee of Arrangements, for an invitation to the Fair of the Davis county Agricultural Society, to be held at Farmington on the 1st and 2nd days of November next. We are pleased to notice the spirit of our neighbors in this matter. How is it we have not before heard of the Davis Fair?

Election Day. To-day (Tuesday) to-morrow the election for President and Vice President takes place. Remember Tuesday (not Thursday) the 6th of November.

FLORIDA ELECTION.—The Breckinridge men have swept this State over Bell and Douglas combined. The South is a unit for Breckinridge and Lane.

EXTRAORDINARY SPEECH FROM A SOUTHERN CONGRESSMAN.—(Hon. Emerson Etheridge, a member of Congress from Tennessee, says the Petersburg Express, recently made a speech in Indiana, and a writer to the Republican press of the North gives its substance as follows:

"He exhorted his political friends to cast away all ideas of supporting a 'Bell ticket' in Indiana, and give their united support to Lincoln. He advised that all the efforts of the united opposition should be directed to the overthrow of the Democratic party, which could only be done by defeating their candidates in as many States as possible. He said if he lived in Indiana he would vote for Lincoln, but as he lived in a State where his own ticket had a chance, he would vote for Bell. This advice from a man of the position held by Mr. Etheridge in his party has great weight with the members of that party in Indiana."

THE PROSPECTS IN NEW YORK.—In a letter written by the eloquent Hon. C. O'Connor, of New York, on the 8th inst., to a friend in Tennessee, the following paragraph occurs:

"We feel morally certain of defeating the Black Republicans in this State. The accomplished failure of their candidates is inevitable. We have laid aside all personal predilections, and I might say all party ties, except those which bind us to the Constitution and secure our hostility to sectionalism; we have taken cognizance of the truth, that if New York can be saved, the whole country will be safe, and have written upon our banner 'Union for the sake of the Union.' All the conservative men of our State are now united in the support of a single electoral ticket."

About three hundred of the American portion of the Bell and Everett party in Baltimore, on Thursday night, marched to the Lincoln headquarters and joined that party. This was in consequence of the election of the reform ticket in Baltimore, which destroyed the rule of the so-called American clubs in that city. The result of this will be to increase Breckinridge's plurality in the State. Since the election many who have previously been Douglas men are coming over to Breckinridge—Constitution.

READY TO DISOLVE.—Hon. Thos. L. Watts, the leading Bell man in the State of Alabama, says that if Lincoln is elected the South ought to resist, and that he is in favor of a dissolution of the Union on that ground.

FRUITS OF A REPUBLICAN TRIUMPH.—The N. Y. Tribune thinks—"A negro insurrection—perhaps more than one—is very likely to follow the knowledge of a Republican triumph."

MARYLAND FOR BRECKINRIDGE.—We clip the following special dispatch from the N. Y. Times: Since the Baltimore election we have felt confident that Mr. Breckinridge would carry that State. We now believe he will get every Southern State.

BALTIMORE, Oct. 12.—The Republicans are holding to night a large and enthusiastic meeting at Reckabell Hall. About a thousand are present. Many dissatisfied Americans and Union men are uniting with them, including members of the American Clubs, and a considerable number of Bell and Everett minute men, who are charged by the recent municipal reform victory. They profess to act in a spirit of retaliation against the Unionists who voted with the reformers. It is calculated that the Republicans will gain an accession of three thousand votes from this class of persons. They now assert that Baltimore will give Lincoln 6,000. If so, it renders Bell's chances doubtful in the State—increasing those of Breckinridge materially. Many Douglas men are now going over to Breckinridge.

The Matter Well Stated.

Our views of the Union and of its true friends and its enemies, are so fully embodied and so admirably expressed in the following article from the Cincinnati Courier, that we adopt it as being much better than anything we could write on the subject. We commend this article to all true friends of the Union and the South—particularly do we commend it to the orators who figured here week before last:

The Union—Is True Friends and Its Enemies.—That the permanency of the Union is at this time endangered, says the Cincinnati Courier, is conceded by reflecting men of all parties. One by one, the links which have bound our people together have been sundered; churches have been separated by geographical lines; political parties have become sectionalized, and all minor issues have been swallowed up in the great and over-riding issue: Shall the people of the South enjoy an equality of rights with the citizens of the North? Upon the decision of this question, depends, as we may, the permanency of the Union. The man is insane who believes that the South will submit to be degraded in the Union.

This Union must be a union of co-equal States, or it will cease to be a Union as formed by our fathers. All acknowledge that the Union is in danger, from the sectionalism which manifests itself both in the North and in the South, and some have proposed to meet the impending danger by the formation of a Union-saving party, whose object evidently is to save the Union by sacrificing the Constitutional rights of at least one section of the Union.

The design of the party has never been clearly defined or understood. But, in our judgment, its formation will be productive of evil. This careless cry of Union! Union! on the part of the Union party South, to use the argument of another, is an advertisement to the people of the North that they may commit aggression after aggression upon the rights of the South, and still the people of the South will patiently submit. What more do the supporters of Lincoln desire? In 1860, Mr. Fillmore declared that the election of Fremont would be sufficient cause for a dissolution of the Union. So thought thousands of good and patriotic men throughout the country. Indeed, it was the prevailing apprehension which everywhere existed, that the Union would be dissolved in the event of a Black Republican triumph, that secured the defeat of Fremont. The Black Republicans now, however, have no such apprehensions. A party has been formed and pledged to stand by the Union, under all circumstances. The Black Republicans may, therefore, go on, knowing that there is a party South which will stand by the Union in spite of all their aggressions on the rights of the citizens of the South. They could not possibly ask for more. They cannot expect to carry any Southern State in their warfare on Southern rights. All they ask, and there are thousands who for party purposes, are willing to make the concession is, that the South will patiently submit to their continued aggressions.

We hold, therefore, that this Union movement gives aid and comfort to the Black Republican party by urging them on in their aggressive course, and by inviting them to make war on the institutions of the South. If the South, instead of being divided, should stand up firmly for her constitutional rights, the people of the North would honor and respect her.

The present contest involves the equality of the rights of the citizens of the South in the Union. On this issue the South should stand united—true to herself. If she abandons her rights, can she expect the true men of the North to stand up in her defense? It is urged against the supporters of Mr. Breckinridge that they are in favor of the Union. The truth is, the party which supports him is the only Constitutional Union party. It is the only party whose principles are broad enough to embrace this whole country. Its principles are national—its organization national—and its candidates national.

The enemies of the Union are those who propose to compromise away Constitutional rights; who propose to submit to wrong and injustice; who seek to strengthen the disunion Black Republican party, by assuring them that the South will quietly submit to all the outrages they may inflict upon them.

The South will stand by the Union so long as her rights are respected, and her equality preserved. If the Union is ever dissolved it will be done by the desertion of the requirements of the Federal Constitution and the continued aggressions upon the rights and institutions of the South. The North may drive the South to disunion, but the South will never abandon the Union until driven to do so by the North. It, therefore, becomes the citizens of the North to pause and reflect upon the consequences which may result from the election of a Black Republican President and the attempt to carry out a purely sectional policy. Such policy may destroy the Union. It is a fearful experiment. Why shall it be attempted?

HON. T. L. CLINGMAN.—Senator Clingman passed through our place, this week, on his way to Raleigh N. C. On Monday night, a large number of our citizens, headed by the Greenville Band, called upon him at the Mansion House, and gave him a serenade. He was introduced to the crowd by Gen. Goodlett, after which he came forward and delivered a short and appropriate address. He thanked them for the call and serenade, and spoke of the political issues of the day. He thought the chance to defeat Lincoln was quite slim, and in the event of his election, he would act with caution and deliberation, and act together.

HOWERTON'S HOTEL.—We were among the numerous guests accommodated at the "Byden House," now under the charge of Major Howerton, during the late great meeting at Salisbury, and should be delighted to our own feelings if we did not state, that every thing was done by the "Old Major"—rank Democrat as every body knows him to be—to accommodate his many lodgers and boarders. We don't say this in a "Deadhead" sense, as we certainly felt it to be our duty, to "foot our bill."—Register.

"Hon," the well informed Washington correspondent of the Baltimore Sun, writes from that place, under date of October 15th, as follows:

New York is not yet surrendered to Lincoln. There is to be a contest, at any rate, and a very close one. The business men of the city, governed by the interests of trade, as well as patriotism, have determined to make a great effort for the defeat of Lincoln. They are to supply the streets of war, without stint, for that purpose. It is resolved, as I learn, to raise a fund of a million of dollars to secure the election of the Cooper Institute electoral ticket—the only conservative electoral ticket now in the field. The subscription to this fund was commenced on Saturday, and a considerable portion of it was raised at once, and without calling upon many of the merchants.

MISSOURI POLITICS.—St. Louis, Oct. 15th.—The Bulletin, the organ of the Breckinridge Democracy, contains an address of the Democratic Central Committee, urging that the vote of the State should be cast for Breckinridge to prevent the dissolution of the Union, by which Missouri has everything to lose and nothing to gain.

THE NEBRASKA ELECTION.—OMAHA, N. T., Oct. 16.—Official returns from all the organized and settled countries in Nebraska Territory give Daily, republican, for Congress, 162 majority.

N. C. RAILROAD.—We had the pleasure of a visit from Wm. T. Dortch, Esq., of Wayne, on Saturday last, who was returning from a meeting of the N. C. Railroad Directors, at the Company's Shops. Mr. Dortch is looking well and gives us good news, from those sections of the State in which he has recently traveled, for Breckinridge and Lane. He does not think that Douglas will receive five Democratic votes in Wayne county.

We learned from Mr. D. that the business of the N. C. Railroad had greatly increased since the last meeting of the Board, and that the receipts were much larger than ever before. The Road is doing a fine business under the management of that most excellent and efficient officer, President Fisher.—Rail Press.

Thousands are daily speaking in the praise of
DR. EATON'S
INFANTILE CORDIAL,
and why? because it never fails to afford instant relief when given in time. It acts as a febrifuge, emetic, and one trial alone will convince you of the truth of what we say is true. It contains

NO PAREGORIC OR OPIATE

of any kind, and therefore relieves by removing the sufferings of your child, instead of by deadening the sensibilities. For this reason, it commends itself as the only reliable preparation now known
